CONFERENCE

WHAT TO EXPECT

The Barristers of 2 Selborne Chambers invite you to our 2026 Property, Family and Planning Law conference in Newcastle NSW on Thursday 26 February 2026

The Main Objective

The main objective of this Conference is to reach out and deepen the relationship between the Bar and Solicitors in the Newcastle and Central Coast Region. We aim to achieve this in discussion about the latest and most important developments in family, property, planning and construction law.

CLE/CPD Points

Attendees will earn 6 CPD / 6 CLE points, including 1 point in Ethics. An interactive panel session will cover ethics and the professional responsibilities of solicitors, their duties and responsibilities to their clients.

Wealth of Knowledge

Our keynote speakers will share practical tips from their experience on the bench of the Court of Appeal, and FCFCOA. Two guest speakers and nine barristers from 2 Selborne Chambers delivering expert insights through dynamic panel discussions. Plus an interactive ethics workshop, makes this a must-attend event for all family, property, planning and construction law practitioners.

A Good Cause

Tickets for the event will be non-refundable, however all profits will be donated to local Newcastle charity, Jenny's Place, a charity providing support for women and children in the Newcastle area to find safety.

OUR SPEAKERS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

JUDGE TERRY BETTS

Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia | Division 2

His Honour worked as a solicitor in Townsville from 1995 to 2001, practicing in civil litigation crime and family law. Called to the QLD Bar in 2002, his Honour developed a broad family law practice in Townsville and North Qld. In 2016, his Honour and family decided on a sea change and moved to Newcastle, where he practiced at the bar until his appointment as a Judge of the Federal Circuit Court on 30 May 2018.

THE HONOURABLE FABIAN GLEESON SC

Retired Court of Appeal Judge

Fabian has over 45 years' experience as a commercial lawyer: 12 years as a judge of the New South Wales Court of Appeal, 23 years as Counsel and Senior Counsel, and over 10 years as a solicitor. At the time of his retirement from the Court in May 2025, he was the senior puisne judge on the Court of Appeal. Fabian is well positioned to shed light on Unconscionability in commercial cases.
